KINGFISHER COUNTY

Distinguished Young Woman

Blair Kloepfer with her parents, Tim and Sandra Kloepfer

Kingfisher County’s Distinguished Young Woman tells lions about events

Blair Kloepfer, a junior at Kingfisher High School’s, and the winner of last year’s Distinguished Young Woman of Kingfisher County award, told of her contest experience in talk to the Kingfisher Lions Club Thursday.

Young women from across the county competed in the event last fall, five of them from Kingfisher.

She said the contest was based on scholarship, community service, talent, fitness and interview, but involved responsibility and self-discipline to participate in preparation for the event on the events leading up to the contest.

She said she participated in FAA helped her with the overall promotion of the competition.

She will compete in the state contest in June.

Participants won scholarships for college study with these winners in the contest.

Kloepfer, the daughter of Tim and Sandra Kloepfer, is active in HHS Student Council, Sh. Peter and Paul Catholic Church Youth Group, Fants Cares for Children and Community Lifelines of Oklahoma.

Resignation draws local comments

Pope Benedict’s recent decision to step down after nearly eight years as the head of the Roman Catholic Church came as a surprise to a local Catholic priest.

He said the resignation was not a surprise. Benedict has said for years that his time in office was nearing its end. He said it was a courageous thing to do and that it will be interesting to see what happens since it is out of the ordinary.

The German pontiff will officially resign on Feb. 28 because of deteriorating physical health. A conclave of cardinals will be the process of choosing a new pope immediately following his resignation.

In order to cover the bank of Saint Peter and pro- claim the Gospel, both strength of mind and body are necessary. Strength which has been lost in the last few months, has determined me to request the resignation of my person, as a successor by my resignation, to the See of St. Peter, my apostolic mission, has deteriorated in me to the extent that I have had to recognize my incapacity to adequately fulfill the ministry entrusted to me,” Pope Benedict XVI said in his resignation statement.

The “flock of Peter” teetered on the brink of a crisis in December. Pope Benedict said he had been convicted of not being able to be pope because of his physical incapacity.

The “bark of St. Peter” remains strong, however, with the pope immediately following Benedict’s resignation with intentions to have a successor by the end of March.

County approves FB proclamation

The county commission approved a proclamation declaring February 2013 as “Citizen of the County” month.

The proclamation received unanimous approval.

“Many of our citizens have won honors and awards during the year,” District 1 County commissioner Edward Wilczek said.

“We have a special presentation by a former Kingfisher pastor, Father Dennis Banther, who will be speaking portion of the commission meeting,” District 3 County Commissioner Edward Wilczek said.

“Let’s make this a proud month for everyone,” District 1 County Commissioner Richard Alig of Okarche, county commissioner Edward Wilczek’s replacement, said. He noted the county will host a committee meeting on Tuesday.

“Two fields are currently being constructed west of the football field. The field on the north side will be the new softball complex, which should be fun for softball fans in the upcoming last pitch season in August,” said Ken Hensel of the Bowling Green softball field.
